1. The Savings Bank Account is essentially an account to built up savings and should be used to route transactions of only non-business/ non-commercial nature. It should not be used as a Current Account. If the Bank at any stage finds that the Savings Bank Account is being used either for the purpose for which it is not allowed or for the purpose of routing transactions which are dubious or undesirable, the Bank reserves the right to close such Savings Bank Account.
2. GST applicable on above charges will be additional.
3. The balance in the account must adhere to the minimum monthly average balance stipulation laid down by the Bank and communicated to you at the time of opening of the account.
Non-maintenance of this monthly average balance will attract applicable penalty on a date determined by the Bank.
4. If there are no transactions in the account for a period of two years, the account will be treated as an inoperative account. The customer should thus transact on the account periodically, so that it does not become inoperative. In case there are no customer induced debit, credit and/or third party transactions in the account, it may be classified as inoperative. The service charges levied by the bnak and/or interest credited by the bank would not be considered as customer induced transactions.
is Satisfactory conduct of the account entails maintaining stipulated monthly average balance as well as sufficient balance to honour cheques issued to third parties. If there are high incidences to the contrary, the Bank reserves the right to close the account under intimation to the customer.
